

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the concurrent resolution.

Mr. REID. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the resolution be agreed to and the motion to reconsider be laid on the table, without any intervening action or debate.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 348) was agreed to.

REMOVAL OF INJUNCTION OF SECRECY—TREATY DOCUMENT NO. 107-15

Mr. REID. Madam President, as in executive session, I ask unanimous consent that the injunction of secrecy be removed from the following treaty transmitted to the Senate today by the President of the United States:

Treaty with Honduras for Return of Stolen, Robbed, or Embezzled Vehicles and Aircraft (Treaty Document No. 107-15).

I further ask that the treaty be considered as having been read the first time; that it be referred, with accompanying papers, to the Committee on Foreign Relations and ordered to be printed, and that the President's message be printed in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The message of the President is as follows:

To the Senate of the United States:

With a view to receiving the advice and consent of the Senate to ratification, I transmit herewith the Treaty Between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Republic of Honduras for the Return of Stolen, Robbed, or Embezzled Vehicles and Aircraft, with Annexes and a related exchange of notes, signed at Tegucigalpa on November 23, 2001. I transmit also, for the information of the Senate, the report of the Department of State with respect to the Treaty.

The Treaty is one of a series of stolen vehicle treaties being negotiated by the United States in order to eliminate the difficulties faced by owners of vehicles that have been stolen and transported across international borders. Like several in this series, this Treaty also covers aircraft. When it enters into force, it will be an effective tool to facilitate the return of U.S. vehicles and aircraft that have been stolen, robbed, or embezzled and found in Honduras.

I recommend that the Senate give early and favorable consideration to the Treaty and give its advice and consent to ratification.

GEORGE W. BUSH.
THE WHITE HOUSE, September 3, 2002.

PRINTING OF LIEBERMAN SUBSTITUTE TO H.R. 5005

Mr. REID. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the Lieberman substitute amendment to H.R. 5005 be printed in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

ORDERS FOR WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 2002

Mr. REID. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in adjournment until 9:30 a.m., Wednesday, September 4; that following the prayer and the pledge, the morning hour be deemed to have expired, the Journal of the proceedings be approved to date, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and the Senate begin consideration of the Interior Appropriations Act; further, at 12 noon, there be a period of morning business until 1 p.m., with Senators permitted to speak therein for up to 10 minutes each, with the first half of the time under the control of Senator KENNEDY or his designee, and the second half of the time under the control of the Republican leader or his designee, and at 1 p.m. the Senate resume consideration of the Homeland Security Act.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

DUAL TRACKING OF LEGISLATION

Mr. REID. Madam President, we are trying something in the Senate that we have tried on a number of other occasions but not often. We are going to do two bills at one time. It is dual tracking. We are going to take up the Interior Appropriations bill in the morning and go until 12 noon on that legislation. At 12 o'clock, we will have an hour of morning business, and then we will go back to the Homeland Security bill. We will do the same thing on Thursday.

We hope that people will be ready on both pieces of legislation to offer any amendment or amendments they might have. I would feel that we were wasting a lot of time if, for example, tomorrow we did not have some amendments offered on the Interior Appropriations bill. The leader has indicated that he expects late votes after tomorrow, which will be Thursday.

We have to stop early tomorrow because former Vice President Mondale will be here to address Members of the Senate. We have a lot of work to do and a very limited amount of time in which to do everything we need to do before our adjournment. Members are put on notice we will be working on Fridays and Mondays, and we will have votes later than normal on Fridays and earlier than usual on Mondays, with the exception of a week from next Monday.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:30 A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. REID. Madam President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 7:16 p.m. adjourned until Wednesday, September 4, 2002, at 9:30 a.m.
